Among those listed among the 29 specialty numbers to be presented in the East End Club minstrel show this month are two talented young sisters of the American Portuguese community, Bella and Doris Silva, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Silva of School street. Bella, the older of the sisters and well known in dance circles, will present a pleasing dance routine as her contribution to the program. Doris will be heard in songs. Both young entertainers are pupils of the Manny Diaz studio.