The British American Social Club held an Armistice Supper and ball in Odd Fellows hall, Bridge street, Saturday evening, at which more than 250 members and friends were present.

An entertainment was presented during the evening and those who took part in the first act, a dance revue by pupils of Helen Powers, were: Helen Mangan, Ruth Sturess, Gerry McCann, Mary Mangan and Bertha Mulvey. Then came a song by Mrs. W. B. Liddy, which was greatly enjoyed, and the final act was presented by the pupils of Manuel Diaz. Those who took part in this were: Baby Ann Gleason, Billy Gleason, Leonard Devanna, George Jardin, Camille Labreque, Beatrice Jardin, Mary Sousa, Florence Devanna, and Jacqueline Muer.

The committee in charge consisted of: Mrs. George Miller, chairman; Mrs. Samuel Garner, Mrs. Charles Marsden, Mrs. Peter Shea, Mrs. Lindley, Mrs. Cronshaw and Mrs. Clegg. The waitresses were: Lilian Shea, Muriel Balmforth, Phylliswood, Thelma Mears, Eleanor Nol-