ence of about 150 people. Before the candidate’s talk, an informal entertainment was enjoyed. Ernest M. Berry served as master of ceremonies and presented the following talent: Gertrude Brown and Billy Hogan, pupils of the Diaz dancing school; June Dawson, Betty McNulty and Edna Hutchinson of the Ethlynd-Naomi school. Others on the program included Helen Laird, Joe Wodjik, Larry Casson, Thomas Kane and Buddy Laffy. Mrs. Florence Kelly was the piano accompanist.