BENEFIT CONCERT FOR ST. THERESA’S CHURCH

There is much local interest in the concert to be presented on Sunday evening for the benefit of St. Therese’s church, in Lakeview avenue, Dracut, in the parish hall. Under the supervision of the new pastor, Rev. Francis X. Gauthier, the program will be presented, the talent having been secured by Ernest G. Gauthier.

The complete presentation is as follows: Overture, Art Dion and his orchestra; songs and monologues, Jack McArdle; tenor solos, Dan Sullivan; violin selections, Dominick Dimodana; songs, Charles Donohue and Eddie Donohue; “The Girl From Spain,” Manuel Dias; songs, Mrs. Joseph W. Green; acrobatic dances, Miss Helen Hodge; “The Princess of Pep,” Baby Rita Gauthier; Scotch songs, James E. Donnelly; sketches of songs and dances, the four Dion sisters, and Lawrence Crane, “the Irish wizard.” The accompanists will be Mrs. Alice MacLaughlin and Charles Donohue. Baby Rita Gauthier will be the mistress of ceremonies.
