PRESENTS ITS ANNUAL

K. C. REVUE

Written and directed by
JOSEPH A. CROSSEN
WILLIAM A. MURRAY, Pianist

Abie, The Tailor ................................................................. John O’Brien
Spike, His Assistant ............................................................. John Laverty
The King ............................................................................. John McArdle
The Prime Minister ............................................................. Walter Langley
The Devil ............................................................................. James Cryan
Dancer to His Majesty ......................................................... Manuel Diaz