The entertainers who have been secured by the veterans for their get-together tonight include several of the city’s most popular performers. Raymond Kelley, Fred Cummings, Ned Saunders and Ted Murphy will be among the soloists. Daniel P. Brennan as master of ceremonies will present several members of his talented troupe including Frank Delmore, Dan Sullivan and Harold O’Hearn. Jack McArdle will put over some of his songs and dances along with Manuel Diaz, dancer, and Andy Roarke, monologist. Out of town talent will include Jimmie Gallagher and Billy Connors of WEEI.

The committee in charge of the smoker is as follows: Henry J. Sullivan, chairman; Irving J. Loucroft, George Walsh, Stephen C. Garrity, Robert L. Holmes and F. A. Lawler.