What Shall Our Entrance Requirements Be?

At the present time there seems to be no idea as to the requirements to be made of the student at the Lowell Textile School. It has been found necessary to separate the gold from the dross. In order to run the school on a suitable plan it has been necessary to do just that and not to go to college and whether or not it is a business proposition with him, or just another way of wasting valuable time. It has been found that the instructor's time is of such value that they cannot afford to waste it upon hopeless prospects. Furthermore, there is an over-abundance of candidates for college and in order to check this best results it is of vital importance to have a type of manhood to work upon.

At Lowell Textile, as you all know, the requirements are not of a restrictive nature. They don't need to be! On the other hand, they are not even high, they are for a boy and a girl who has received a high school diploma as required without further examination. In some cases men are admitted upon passing certain requirements, who are not even graduates of High Schools. We do not believe there are many who will be permitted to come who will not be sufficient to run the school on such a basis.

Of course you will immediately say that in some cases men who are not graduates of High Schools are at a higher caliber than High School graduates. In some cases, yes, but in a good many cases, no. Careful consideration should be made in such cases and no arbitrary methods should be used. Many of the requirements of the High Schools are not of an acceptable nature. They have, in some cases, followed the path of least resistance and have started in High School, which we all know can be done easily enough if you so desire. When they enter college, the change is too great, it is more of a business proposition than a college. In many cases they are unable to survive the test.

We all know that the courses at Lowell Textile are of a high caliber and there is much to be derived from them if you wish to apply yourself. Furthermore, a man of the right type upon graduating from this college, a mighty fine advertisement for the college. But here is the catch, can we expect to have a majority of our students of a high type, a type equal to those attending the average college, with such low entrance requirements? We cannot, and we shall not, as long as this shall exist. After all, he best advertisement for a college is the type of men it sends out and if you wish to have your college grow, you must select the type of higher type who do come to this college. For the good of the college, for the good of the professors and for the good of our present, past and future student body, the requirements should be made higher and of a more restrictive nature at Textile.

Some of the men in this school will not even be allowed to enter another college. Men like this come up to the standard of Textile Industry.

Leo Reisman to Play

Leo Reisman's Hotel Brunswick Orchestra has been selected for the afternoon after the show. This orchestra made famous by its radio broadcast, consisting of players who are one of the foremost units in the East and undoubtedly the leading dance orchestra of New England. Leo will be the leading Hoffman team as it is the only band that Lowell Textile has been to play this season. The peculiar circumstances give him full chance to demonstrate his ability.

It is, however, of little importance and of little consequence to dwell on the ability of Reisman; his love of music and his ability to inspire will be enough to cause the audience to be charmed. The man and his orchestra will be the one to watch. The Peabody Theater, the only one in the area to play, will be the only one to play, and the audience will be delighted with the performance.

Pegey—"Anger" MacKenzie

Sam—"Black and Blue." "Yes, we are all here Mrs. Chadwick, Miss MacKenzie, and Miss MacKenzie, expecting you all." Well we can remember looking back to May 31, 1921 when this chap, MacKenzie, then playing the villain did the old Bishop out of his $1,000. He was a silly sort and had no intention of playing a leading hero especially when there were people around who delighted in being robbed.

The Hottentot, however, techs MacKenzie from the villain to the hero, the man and dervish returns some of that love that he sates. The peculiar circumstances give him full chance to demonstrate his ability.

It is, however, of little importance and of little consequence to dwell on the ability of Reisman; his love of music and his ability to inspire will be enough to cause the audience to be charmed. The man and his orchestra will be the one to watch. The Peabody Theater, the only one in the area to play, will be the only one to play, and the audience will be delighted with the performance.
EXCHANGE OF FOOTBALL COACHES

An exchange of coaches for spring training has now been effected between Princeton and the University of Michigan. Fielding Yost, the Michigan coach, is now in Princeton instructing the men in Michigan tactics. After Yost's visit is over with, Coach Roper of Princeton will go to Ann Arbor and give the Michigan men a taste of eastern coaching. The exchange has been made to introduce new ideas into the work of both teams.

There is no great difference between football training in the east and west, according to Yost.

NASHVILLE TO HAVE LITTLE THEATER

Ambitious students of Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tennessee, are planning a Little Theater for the university and the city. The plan is furthered by the Cabinet Club, a Junior-Senior Literary Club which also sponsors the Masquerader, a comical. The first plays are three one-act plays to be produced in May.

Believing that Nashville is large enough to support a Little Theater venture, the Cabinet Club is taking the burden of starting the venture on its own shoulders. They are gambling on the interest and support of civic and dramatic organizations of the city after the venture has been started.

Fitchburg Whitewashed

Coach "Letty" Tyler's Lowell Textile baseball team has been playing a most sanguine game of ball since the beginning of the season and at the same time they have been keeping up the test for the remainder of the season a record session will have been played.

Several weeks ago the red and black stocking and striped team was firmly in the short but spacy schedule with Fitchburg Normal on the local ground. Fitchburg, however, was in the short but spacy schedule with Fitchburg Normal on the local ground. Fitchburg, however, was... (text continues)

Textile defeated Norwich, 6 to 2.

Saturday afternoon, Tom A. was on the mound for the Textile team. He had quite a bunch of runners, including speed, slide, fly, and, as expected, the team had a hard time getting out of the way. The Textile players are accustomed, but the spectators are not. Moreover, the home team has the advantage of two out and two strikers on the hill. It was a cold bit.
"At the Bridge"

It was the last half of the ninth, and the home team led three runs on the board. Litter on the bench. The scene was one of silence. Suddenly the umpire stepped forward and held up his hand.

"Game called on account of darkness," he announced.

He leaves a wife and three children.

"That's strange," I was positive one was under the bed," I answered. "A man in a dressing gown."

A young man said," Someone under the bed?"

"Yes, professor." Answered the instructor who was of the peculiarities of the professor.

"Dave can't think."

"No, professor." Answered the instructor who was of the peculiarities of the professor.
