Calvin Coolidge

(Extracted from Page 19)
The secret of his success was a simple one—character.

This quiet, modest, New England leader beloved on the simple virtues of his Vermont heritage for guidance.

He brought to the Presidency the plain common sense, the desire for simplicity, and dignity in public office. The love of the soil and the passion for handwork and outdoor life was a part of the New England.

In the United States, the War coming of Coolidge to the Presidency was like an awakening. The country was determined to be reminded of the things that had been forgotten, and the rich納 charge.

The country, he thought, could be reminded of the things that had been forgotten, and the rich people. Calvin Coolidge restored the country to a realism far better than the old traditions which had built a great nation.

And, as he said, he was going to change.
He led us on charting the course.
He did not dramatize himself as the popular leader. He was more himself than the others. He was efficient, reliable, administrative, independent, and a man of peace. He did the work in the spirit of faction. of the American people.

He was the man who could change. He led us on charting the course. He did not dramatize himself as the popular leader. He was more himself than the others. He was efficient, reliable, administrative, independent, and a man of peace. He did the work in the spirit of faction. of the American people.

He was not only a great man, but a great statesman. He led us on charting the course. He did not dramatize himself as the popular leader. He was more himself than the others. He was efficient, reliable, administrative, independent, and a man of peace. He did the work in the spirit of faction. of the American people.

Textile Wins Opener

Textile Defeats New Bedford

Textile, 60 — New Bedford, 21.

The score shows some small way but no difference between the two teams. A place, but thoroughly outplayed New Bedford team was held under considerable pressure.

The most gratifying feature of the game was a sample of the series of Hopkins and Athens. The work of the hitter was marvelous to behold; it exhibited agility and the basket two major moves could be relied on to settle the issue of the better. Great things will be expected from the rest of the season.

Bogacz, Kupala, and Bogacz and Hines were the culprits of the game. All the rest of the team agreed that they were not at all surprising to see the team in regular position in the future.

When I like something
I evermore like it!

THEY'RE MILDER—
THEY TASTE BETTER

— and I like CHESTERFIELD Cigarettes.

To me, they are mild—that is, they don't seem to be strong; and there is certainly no bite, so far as I can tell.
To me, they taste better and they have a pleasing aroma.

Every CHESTERFIELD that I get is well-filled, and I feel like I am getting my money's worth—that there is no
short measure about it.
I like CHESTERFIELDS. They satisfy me.
