Fraternity Week End Begins

GOVERNOR FURCOLO COMES TO LTI

On Thursday evening, April 11, Governor Furcolo and a board of officials and students from the Lowell Technological Institute will be honored in a public presentation of the new tax law at the Lowell Tech. The event will feature a reception, dinner, and speeches. The Governor will be joined by other prominent figures in the local community.

LOWELL TECH PLAYERS PRESENTS

By William E. Santley

Tonight, the Lowell Tech Players will present their annual dinner theater production. The play is titled "The All-Star Cast," and features a cast of seven males and five females.

TEXT HOLDS ELECTIONS

The Text recently held its annual elections and the following were elected: Editor-in-Chief - Sheldon Prince; Managing Editor - Albert Wilk; and Business Manager - Leonard Eidelson.

The paper has enjoyed a successful year in its achievement and accomplishments under the direction of Fred Good, Jerry Horsman, and the boys extended to all Five Brothers, Brown and P. J. Sanders, faculty advisor and general advisor respectively. They are both welcomes to wear and of invaluable help.

Our Special Edition on traffic safety was quite helpful in that it turned on an award for editor Jerry Horsman. It also featured a four-page honorarium in a contest of which the editors from newspapers from all parts of the country. Lowell Tech is aiming at its mark on the map. Thanks and congratulations are given to our editor for the very well, new and remarkable POSK MAN OF THE YEAR 1957. This is the first year in which the students have been able to present a first-rate edition of this publication.

The Text recently held its annual elections and the following were elected: Editor-in-Chief - Sheldon Prince; Managing Editor - Albert Wilk; and Business Manager - Leonard Eidelson.

The paper has enjoyed a successful year in its achievement and accomplishments under the direction of Fred Good, Jerry Horsman, and the boys extended to all Five Brothers, Brown and P. J. Sanders, faculty advisor and general advisor respectively. They are both welcomes to wear and of invaluable help.

Our Special Edition on traffic safety was quite helpful in that it turned on an award for editor Jerry Horsman. It also featured a four-page honorarium in a contest of which the editors from newspapers from all parts of the country. Lowell Tech is aiming at its mark on the map. Thanks and congratulations are given to our editor for the very well, new and remarkable POSK MAN OF THE YEAR 1957. This is the first year in which the students have been able to present a first-rate edition of this publication.

The Text recently held its annual elections and the following were elected: Editor-in-Chief - Sheldon Prince; Managing Editor - Albert Wilk; and Business Manager - Leonard Eidelson.

This year's edition is directed by Mrs. Virginia Cfr. Mrs. Cfr was formerly a professor of drama at the University of Chicago and more recently associate professor of forensics at Emerson College. She has been in charge of the production of many plays and has received several nominations and awards for her work. This year's edition is directed by Mrs. Virginia Cfr. Mrs. Cfr was formerly a professor of drama at the University of Chicago and more recently associate professor of forensics at Emerson College. She has been in charge of the production of many plays and has received several nominations and awards for her work.

The Text recently held its annual elections and the following were elected: Editor-in-Chief - Sheldon Prince; Managing Editor - Albert Wilk; and Business Manager - Leonard Eidelson.

The paper has enjoyed a successful year in its achievement and accomplishments under the direction of Fred Good, Jerry Horsman, and the boys extended to all Five Brothers, Brown and P. J. Sanders, faculty advisor and general advisor respectively. They are both welcomes to wear and of invaluable help.

Our Special Edition on traffic safety was quite helpful in that it turned on an award for editor Jerry Horsman. It also featured a four-page honorarium in a contest of which the editors from newspapers from all parts of the country. Lowell Tech is aiming at its mark on the map. Thanks and congratulations are given to our editor for the very well, new and remarkable POSK MAN OF THE YEAR 1957. This is the first year in which the students have been able to present a first-rate edition of this publication.

The Text recently held its annual elections and the following were elected: Editor-in-Chief - Sheldon Prince; Managing Editor - Albert Wilk; and Business Manager - Leonard Eidelson.

This year's edition is directed by Mrs. Virginia Cfr. Mrs. Cfr was formerly a professor of drama at the University of Chicago and more recently associate professor of forensics at Emerson College. She has been in charge of the production of many plays and has received several nominations and awards for her work. This year's edition is directed by Mrs. Virginia Cfr. Mrs. Cfr was formerly a professor of drama at the University of Chicago and more recently associate professor of forensics at Emerson College. She has been in charge of the production of many plays and has received several nominations and awards for her work.

The Text recently held its annual elections and the following were elected: Editor-in-Chief - Sheldon Prince; Managing Editor - Albert Wilk; and Business Manager - Leonard Eidelson.

This year's edition is directed by Mrs. Virginia Cfr. Mrs. Cfr was formerly a professor of drama at the University of Chicago and more recently associate professor of forensics at Emerson College. She has been in charge of the production of many plays and has received several nominations and awards for her work. This year's edition is directed by Mrs. Virginia Cfr. Mrs. Cfr was formerly a professor of drama at the University of Chicago and more recently associate professor of forensics at Emerson College. She has been in charge of the production of many plays and has received several nominations and awards for her work.

The Text recently held its annual elections and the following were elected: Editor-in-Chief - Sheldon Prince; Managing Editor - Albert Wilk; and Business Manager - Leonard Eidelson.

This year's edition is directed by Mrs. Virginia Cfr. Mrs. Cfr was formerly a professor of drama at the University of Chicago and more recently associate professor of forensics at Emerson College. She has been in charge of the production of many plays and has received several nominations and awards for her work. This year's edition is directed by Mrs. Virginia Cfr. Mrs. Cfr was formerly a professor of drama at the University of Chicago and more recently associate professor of forensics at Emerson College. She has been in charge of the production of many plays and has received several nominations and awards for her work. This year's edition is directed by Mrs. Virginia Cfr. Mrs. Cfr was formerly a professor of drama at the University of Chicago and more recently associate professor of forensics at Emerson College. She has been in charge of the production of many plays and has received several nominations and awards for her work.
THE TEXT

Yea, the student, have at some time called for the change.

This is a reasonable request for a few dollars more of tuition.

As a result, the student's petition has been heard and acted upon.

The student body is grateful for the increased tuition and wants to express its appreciation for the financial assistance it has been granted.

DELINQUENCY

It is not unusual for students to erk but below the poverty line, which leads to delinquency.

Recently, we have had a case of a student who has been engaged in theft and vandalism.

The student was apprehended and is currently facing charges of theft and vandalism.

The student has been summoned to appear before the court and will face
the consequences of his actions.

The incident is a warning to other students about the potential
dangers of delinquency, and the importance of following the rules and regulations of the institution.

The student body is encouraged to stay away from such behavior and to seek help if needed.
TWO PLAYERS CONT.

ENTERTAINMENT

STUDENT COUNCIL

The meeting was held at 5:00 P.M. on Monday, April 19, in the Student Council Chambers. The meeting was attended by all members of the Student Council.

KEITH THEATRE

May 7

"Guns on the Petticoat" starring Ardis Murphy. The story of the American civility in action. Also "Shadow on the Window."

May 9

"This is the Story of the Max Man." An authentic story of the life that is creating such a disturbance in America today. The actual information from Mr. Rosam's book "Something of Value." To complete the bill will be:

May 11

Robert Regan and Arthur Franz star in "Naval Jeckyll," a book that is a complete picture of the growing day-to-day day of our submarines to World War II. The second film will be: "The Photographer." "Naval Jeckyll" has been the respective committees by John H. Allen, President; E. J. Allen, V. P. President; J. E. Hockett, Secretary; Newton Committee, P. H. Huber, Secretary of the University.

STRAND THEATRE

May 14

"Written Hot the Wagons" a story by Walt Disney which is good enough for any of our superior memberships. This story stars John Smith, Betty Westwood, and Fou. Parker. With this a trip to the fabulous Disneyland.

Hanns Stewart in one of the best films of this May 5-12.

Wayne takes part of the Marines to bring you "Flying Leathernecks," starring the Bill "No Flies" Stirling, starring the Bill of

COLUMBUS

Movies, movies and more movies, that's what seems to be the case for Boston entertainment this coming week. The LaGuardia Institute, one of the most controversial French pictures to hit Boston, and you know what that means. This is "The Love," starring Danielle Darrieux and Loo Goun, a French film. Another good movie that's being advertised is "Any Face," starring John H. Allen, Director, and "Foot in the Door," starring Judi Heffernan and Fred Astaire. This is a particularly good picture, and they are also doing a good job on a look that's going to be advertised this week in "After the Rain" starring Betty Prentice and the Contractor's House. Another murder of a different kind follows "Any Face," and it's called "The Return of the Contractor's House." If you ever plan to marry, better see this picture, to see what some of your friends are doing and to see your friends are really in love or not. Better see "The Return of the Contractor's House" and "Well, Well, You’re a Lady." Also "The Return of the Contractor's House." At the Strand, the Academy Award winning movie for "The Red Army," starring Danielle Darrieux and Loo Goun, which has been reprinted in the daily papers and is being advertised by all the newspapers. In the daily papers, it is being advertised by the May 19.5.

In the Strand, the Academy Award winning movie for three days, "The Red Army," has been reprinted in the daily papers and is being advertised by all the newspapers. In the daily papers, it is being advertised by the May 19.5.

This is a trip to the fabulous Disneyland.

IT'S SPRING???????

This is the time of year when a young man's folly turns into a good idea of a year. At least that's what a little bit of a season change can do.

1. Sing: Everyone loves a good tune. If you can't sing, why not try to play the piano? It's the same thing.

2. FINISH: Show all your teeth.

3. ROYAL BALLET: Nothing like a good ballet to get the blood flowing.

4. ROYAL BALLET: Nothing like a good ballet to get the blood flowing.

5. ROYAL BALLET: Nothing like a good ballet to get the blood flowing.

6. ROYAL BALLET: Nothing like a good ballet to get the blood flowing.

7. ROYAL BALLET: Nothing like a good ballet to get the blood flowing.

8. ROYAL BALLET: Nothing like a good ballet to get the blood flowing.

9. ROYAL BALLET: Nothing like a good ballet to get the blood flowing.

10. ROYAL BALLET: Nothing like a good ballet to get the blood flowing.

11. ROYAL BALLET: Nothing like a good ballet to get the blood flowing.

12. ROYAL BALLET: Nothing like a good ballet to get the blood flowing.

13. ROYAL BALLET: Nothing like a good ballet to get the blood flowing.

14. ROYAL BALLET: Nothing like a good ballet to get the blood flowing.

15. ROYAL BALLET: Nothing like a good ballet to get the blood flowing.

16. ROYAL BALLET: Nothing like a good ballet to get the blood flowing.

17. ROYAL BALLET: Nothing like a good ballet to get the blood flowing.

18. ROYAL BALLET: Nothing like a good ballet to get the blood flowing.

19. ROYAL BALLET: Nothing like a good ballet to get the blood flowing.

20. ROYAL BALLET: Nothing like a good ballet to get the blood flowing.

21. ROYAL BALLET: Nothing like a good ballet to get the blood flowing.

22. ROYAL BALLET: Nothing like a good ballet to get the blood flowing.

23. ROYAL BALLET: Nothing like a good ballet to get the blood flowing.

24. ROYAL BALLET: Nothing like a good ballet to get the blood flowing.

25. ROYAL BALLET: Nothing like a good ballet to get the blood flowing.

26. ROYAL BALLET: Nothing like a good ballet to get the blood flowing.

27. ROYAL BALLET: Nothing like a good ballet to get the blood flowing.

28. ROYAL BALLET: Nothing like a good ballet to get the blood flowing.

29. ROYAL BALLET: Nothing like a good ballet to get the blood flowing.

30. ROYAL BALLET: Nothing like a good ballet to get the blood flowing.
BRIDGE LEAGUE

The final meeting of the Bridge League was held on Tuesday, 20. The student team of Banker College won the season's championships with a score of 66 against 63 of the opposition. The Bridge League is a competitive event that brings together players from various colleges, fostering a spirit of camaraderie and skill.

TERRIERS 2 - 2

The Lowell Tech team played against the visiting team from the University of New Hampshire. The match was tense and exciting, with both teams showing strong tactical skills. The game ended in a draw, 2-2, after a series of back-and-forth points.

HORSEPOWER AND THE OUTBOARD

The outboard motor as generally known in the United States (Outboard Association) and many other countries, is the engine that is employed on the outboard motors that are used on boats. The 1960s marked a significant period in the development of outboard motors, as manufacturers began to focus on improving efficiency and durability. The article discusses the advancements in outboard technology and the impact they had on boating experiences.

Golf Undefeated

On Tuesday, April 18, at the Van Are Country Club, Tech's golf team easily defeated the Johnny Machine with a score of 12-2, securing their victory in the season opener. The team worked hard throughout the season, preparing for the upcoming matches against their competitors.

What Every Girl Looks For

In a Man

1. He thatSelection of a new coach for the baseball team.

CLARECOS

Saturday, April 29, saw Tech's softball team play against Nichols Junior College. However, they were defeated by Nichols in a close match, with the final score being 7-2. TheTech team was unable to overcome the strong defensive play of Nichols, leading to their loss.

DEAN

On Sunday, April 30, the Tech tennis team played against the University of New Hampshire. The match was intense, with the Tech team showing strong resilience and determination. The final score was 2-2, showcasing the competitive spirit of the players.

Through all the trials and tribulations of the season, the Tech tennis team remained focused, determined to give their best in every match. The team's hard work and dedication paid off, as they managed to secure a point in the win column.

What Every Girl Looks For

In a Man

1. He that
2. Be he neat and clean.
3. Must be honest and trustworthy.
4. Be able to match his weight and make his own living.
5. Have friends to outnumber his enemies.
6. Be able to handle a gun.
7. Have a good knowledge of horses and hunting.