EASTER EGG CONTEST RULES;
ENTRIES MUST BE IN BY MARCH 15

Does the date March 15 bring on an attack of mental anxiety in your home? If you are a headwoman, you will no doubt realize that date is known as 1st Day, or income tax deadline. Aside from your tax forms and other necessary documentation for you to exhibit. You will not require a public accountant, but the services of a fortune-teller would certainly be appreciated.

As many of you have probably noticed, the bookroom has its windows and cupboards out with a new automatic washing machine. The machine is a marvel, it is said, and will save the women of the house a great deal of time and trouble. But there are some who are not so sure. They say that the machine will not wash as well as the old-fashioned way. Others say that it is too noisy. But in any case, it is a new invention and we should all be interested in it.

The competition for the best Easter egg is now on. The eggs are to be brought in by March 20, and the winner will be announced on the 21st. The prize will be a beautiful basket of flowers.

This year, the Easter egg contest will be held on March 15, and the winners will be announced on March 20.

STUDENT RULES TO BE REVISED;
NEW COMMITTEE BEING FORMED

The new committee is being formed to revise the student rules. It will consist of faculty members and students. The committee will meet at least once a week to discuss the rules and make any necessary changes.

The committee will also be responsible for the enforcement of the rules. If any student breaks a rule, the committee will decide what action should be taken.

The students are encouraged to participate in the meetings of the committee. They will be given the opportunity to suggest changes to the rules and raising concerns about the current policies.

The meetings will be open to the public, and all students are welcome to attend. The committee will be meeting in the library on Monday evenings at 7 PM.

BY GEORGE BARRY

Everything in this world is relative. A man is said to be tall because he is compared to a short man. A situation is said to be good because it is compared to a bad one.

For a long time now, we have been complimenting the athlete situation here in college. We have compared the athletes to the men of the world. Nothing is more rewarding if the situation is truly bad.

The basketball situation this week is a situation that has grown in favor of the sports world. The sport of basketball has been a sport of many instances. It has been a sport that has been enjoyed by many athletes.

The encounter now becomes a battle, a big business, which thrives on designing principles as an American Statue of Liberty. And this is no time to destroy such ideals.

The athletes mixed in this sport are sexual of appealing bodies to lose to you, as in some cases, to bring about a specific point which would favor thecumbler in their efforts. In their efforts to get rid of the bug, the players are not just, but in a way, the situation is far worse.

A note and a note recently published out in the column that the administration of some colleges are just as much to blame for these scandals. The situation is far worse and it cannot be partly due to an interest in education.

A noted author recently published out in the column that the administration of some colleges are just as much to blame for these scandals. The situation is far worse and it cannot be partly due to an interest in education.

Let's look at I.T.T. sports. There is no denying that victorious seasons have been saved around this school, but let us analyze the facts a little closely. Without wasting time, there are two things you can do in an athletic contest; you can win or you can lose. We have been and lost frequently in recent years, but what is the most important thing is that there is a need for victory.

The situation is far worse and it cannot be partly due to an interest in education. Therefore, the athletes, also wanting to get on the big money, has下來 defeat and hence the scandals.
