THE TEXTILE MARRIAGE

Professor Harry Chamberlain Brown, of Mary E. H. Barnard, in New Boston, May 19, 1939.

Robert G. Kennedy (L. T. I. '30) is to Miss Mary C. H. Rice, of Unionville, Connecticut, September 16, 1939. The best man was Herbert Way, and the best woman was Evelyn Chamberlain.

W. A. Redfield (L. T. I. '30) is to Miss Mary S. Schaefer, of Cincinnati, Ohio, August 19, 1939. The best man was Charles Redfield, and the best woman was Mildred Redfield.

Hyannis Teachers Play Here Sept. 30

By Prof. L. H. Cushing

When the 1938 season closed, the prospects for this year looked very bright. Out of 11 letter men, we expected to have 10 available at the beginning of the year. However, when the call for candidates was answered, we found that there were only nine men out for the team. It was a severe blow to the team when it was learned that Joe Pelt, co-captain, had sustained an injury and was unable to play football this fall. "Joe" was one of the best tackles that Textile has had in recent years. Frank Stagg (end), Tom Curran (halfback) and Loyd Chapman (back), who was injured in a skiing accident last winter, have left college;

Students Organize Fencing Team

For the first time in the history of Lowell Textile Institute a fencing team will be organized. Mr. Charles Daly will be faculty advisor, and Robert Eichler will take charge of the team, conducting practices and supervising training.

"All," who has three years of fencing experience at high school and one year at Georgia Tech behind him, will instruct various aspirants in the fundamentals of the sport.

There is room for eight men on the squad. All those interested should see Eichler in the football locker-room any time after school. No equipment will be necessary at the present time.

Here's wishing A.I. and the fencing team lots of luck during the coming year.

Fraternities

At this time of the college year considerable attention is paid by the various fraternal societies in an effort to attract membership to their different groups. Although the Lowell Institute does not give any particular group a preference over another, students are given ample opportunity to choose for themselves, a word of advice might be needed on the part of the students and alumni. No society is or organization formed for the purpose of promoting fellowship and brotherly affection. Therefore, it follows that such a group is no longer an honor to the poor student. Continued petty disturbances can cause harm than any disagreement of major proportions. If you find that careful consideration that you dislike any particular fraternity, then, both for your sake, and the sake of the fraternity, keep out. When you have settled upon your choice, join that group and work for its promotion. After all this has been done, you should not sit idly but should do your just share in promoting the welfare of your group and thus build up an organization that epitomizes the true purpose of a fraternity. I am not one of the few, the more. We are the best. The sooner we realize the necessity of working in hand in hand with our fellowmen.

Fraternities do infinity good for our institution and its students. In your hand alone, lies the choice. Do not be led into joining any group by the bright pictures painted for you by any member. Consider the student's, the accomplishments, and the aims of all and choose for yourself. It must always be borne in mind that once the choice is made, it is binding and cannot be broken. Therefore, it behooves you to think wisely before you act.

Closs Songs

One of the outstanding impressions which the Editor obtained from the graduation of the Class of 1930, last June, was the lack of enthusiasm with which ALMA MATER was sung. The singing of this song which all Tremontians hold in such love and respect was very spirited. Although one of the freshmen requirements is the learning of the words of the ALMA MATER, it seems that, once learned, the care overpronounced. The songs appear to be printed with the worst of both ALMA MATER and FAIR TEXTILE, the only official songs of the Institute, for the convenience of the group, but also of the upper classmen. Learn them, fellows, so you can at least put a little pop into them when you sing them at assemblies.

Omicron Pi News

The Omicron Pi Fraternity extends to the Class of 1943 a most hearty welcome and an invitation to come over to the house at any time.

The house has undergone a few minor repairs to date, and there is a new addition to the large sitting room. The members of the Faculty, the Fraternity, and the special students who are at West for their first year are invited to attend an Open House at the fraternity house, 546 Fletcher Street, Lowell. Refreshments will be served, and the atmosphere of this entertainment will be supplied by some of the more talented brothers.

Those who wish to bring their friends are welcome to do so.

Phi Psi Fraternity To Hold Open House

All New Students Are Invited

It has always been the policy of Phi Psi Fraternity to encourage social activities at the Institute. With this policy in mind, the members of the Faculty, the Freshman Class, and the special students who are at West for their first year are invited to attend an Open House at the fraternity house, 546 Fletcher Street, Lowell. Refreshments will be served, and the atmosphere of this entertainment will be supplied by some of the more talented brothers.

Sophomores Adopt A Class Home

At the suggestion of Professor Dow, the members of the Sophomore class are adopt a crew home. "19" and "50" are the numbers assigned to this home. The Sophomore class is hereby invited to visit the crew house and to adopt it as their own.

At a meeting of the Sophomore class, the following committee on initiation was chosen: Coifford, L. A.; Shaffer, H. S.; and Armstrong. The Sophomore class is hereby invited to visit the crew house and to adopt it as their own.

S. O. P. News

S. O. P. fraters will be on hand to help make the Freshman Bran-quet the success that it always has been.

Morty Schlesinger hopes that "potatoes would be cheaper." He is an only son, so with eighteen rooms at the house this year, Al Mass., our erstwhile manager, (who is living up to the enviable reputation of all managers by not doing any work) is also singing the same tune.

A hearty welcome to our frater, Eddie Kintzmann, from Min group.

Our alumna, Bess Goldberg, paid us a visit recently and was palavering with the big-wigs of the school. Was there any panaceas for the freshest chemists?

Watch this column concerning pig-pong.

For freshers this year, the students are living in our house. Here’s wishing a pleasant stay to Dee Simon, Milt Kitay, Herb Goldberg, Milt Samson and Art Teichman.

Johnay: "Say Dad, remember the story you told me about the time you were expelled from school?"
Dad: "Yes." Johnay: "Well, isn’t it funny how history repeats itself?"

First Football Game Saturday, Hyannis Teachers vs. Textile

(Continued from page 1) Roberts (back) and Alex Hass (guard) have taken late afternoon jobs that have kept them from football, and "Mickey" Gass has not reported to the squad. Besides, Textile lost Tom Reddick (tackle) and Eddie Spevacek (guard) to a series of operations, Ed Morton, who transferred to George's Tech; and "Butt" Madison and Ralph Freeman, who failed to return to college.

However, the gloom that was created by the loss of 12 letter men instead of the five whom we expected to lose, was speedily dispelled by the appearance on the field of 16 new men, four upperclassmen who came out for the team for the first time this fall and 12 newcomers at Textile. Some of these men look like excellent football players. Stan Dine, former Manchester High and St. Andrews player, should fill the position of halfback left by Madden equally as well as his year's Bash. Al Varolio will fill one of the tackle holes most capably. George Downey, from Maynard High, and Edward Rowen, from Knoxfield Latin, are developing steadily as backs, and the other freshman candidates are showing steady improvement every day.

The squad now numbers 31, including the four men who have been on the squad before, and twelve freshmen. The letter men available are Rudy Meuser (Captain), Russell Cunningham and George McTague (backs); champagne Mackle and Henry Slinki, (ends); Eddie Maslanka (center); Abe Grouds, Joe Tom-annurs, and George Cordeau (guards). McTague can be used either at back or end, Maslanka can play center or end, and Tom-annurs will see service both as a guard and tackle. It is still hoped that Mickey Gass, Gus Roberts and Al Hass may be able to return to arrange their outside work so as to come out for the team.

Textile is fortunate this year in having the largest coaching staff in its history. "Rusty" Yarnall, who came to Textile in the fall of 1937, starts his third year as Head Coach. He is back being assisted by Mr. Charles Scully, who played quarterback at Villa Nova. Lieutenant Lawrence Smith, who played end and halfback, and Lieutenant Roy Buck, also a former Navy player. With four coaches and a squad of 31 players, it is evident that the members of the 1939 team can receive much more individual attention than ever was possible before. For that reason this should be the best coached team that Textile has ever put on the field. Because of the excellent material available, because of the fine spirit of cooperation prevailing in the squad, and because of the largest coaching staff in Textile's history, the season should be a series of very interesting games this fall and to a successful season. Our aim is to equal or exceed last year's record of six victories, one tie, and two defeats. Our chances would be still better if we had more replacements, and the Athletic Director urges all students of football ability to report to the squad. It is not yet too late.

The complete roster of the squad under date of September 21 is as follows:

- Ends: Co-captain Rudy Meuser, Russ Cunningham, George McTague; Andy Demetriopoulos, Morton Oppenheim, Stan Dubois, George Downey, Edward Rowen, Martin Murray, John Johnson, Ralph Zellweger, Charles Konius.
- Centers: Eddie Maslanka, Kenneth Barnes, John Campbell.
- Tackle: Abe Grouds, George Cordeau, Frank Whiting, Dave Dolge, William Paragnostos.

A Freshman Girl's Lament

With a heart brimful of grief, I awaken to the day;
Though my joy is brief, it will not go away.

The reason is so simple, it pains me just to know;
My boy friend has no diploma.

That's what hurts me so.

A combination of the best for the best

For those who want the best in cigarette pleasure.

You'll find in Chesterfield's RIGHT COMBINATION of the world's best home-grown and aromatic Turkish tobaccos a more refreshing mildness, better taste and a more pleasing aroma than you'll find anywhere else. It's a combination entirely different from any other cigarette, a good reason why letters every day are getting more pleasure from Chesterfields. You'll like them.
