THE RETURN IS ONLY AS GOOD AS THE INVESTMENT

The Text

To extend its heartfelt congratulations to the newly elected Student Council. Led by Garth Low, the new council should shape up to be a successful one. This is because the Text would like to see side by side with the Student Council in perfect harmony in order to give the students of L.T.T. exactly what they desire. The return is only as good as the investment.

Actually, what does the average student at L.T.T. desire? A new dormitory, a bigger cafeteria, a more attractive campus? All of these things are simple; not a thing! After all, what does he do for school? The Return is only as good as the investment.

It is all due respect to the Student Council members; though they are quite qualified to hold their positions, they are not Gods. Therefore, they do not have the undefined authority that one should dare oppose them. Except for the office of President and a couple of others, they are not the ones who win the whole elections, or force a better word, because he was the only candidate running. This was by reason of the name, Lowell Tech. The students almost didn't have the interest to run for office, but 99% didn't even have the decency to vote. The former post is a great one to be respected. There is something the student body deserves; PITY! How far in this most competitive society can students go, if they don't have the ambition, initiative, or interest to take an active part in their own affairs. The students of Lowell Tech have turned their books and descriptively shunned their own responsibility. It is their responsibility to make sure that the man for the position is elected to the office and if the most qualified candidate is not the one elected, then the students in Lowell Tech could vote to revoke the encouragement of the vote, can be forced by student representatives. Nominations are now open for class officers. Are we going to lose both ends of the double-header or can we relate and do in so we must have the "nightout". Are we as well qualified to do this as they did? There should be no question. Let us nominate the best man for the offices and if they do not realize that they are capable of being responsible, let us encourage them with our full support and backing.

Let us for once come out and vote. Not 1 or 2 of us, but the entire student body. Let us not be the ones to be pitied, but admired, respected and looked up to.

IKE & MACILLIAN

It is now up to President Eisenhower and Prime Minister Macmillan to lead the West against the Russians in the Berlin dispute. With Chancellor Konrad Adenauer running for the President of Germany and Secretary of State Dulles in ill health, leadership will have to come from a new and more potent source in 1956. Eisenhower will not claim the same forcefulness they had in the past.

France's Premier De Gaulle and Nationalist China's Chiang Kai-Shek are two other major leaders who are to be seen in 1956. Sooner than expected, the diplomatic policies of NATO are becoming "softer."

S.W.

Dear Sir:

If you have been one of those students that have sent in letters of complaint concerning the service and attitude of some of the clerical and manual staff of the student service center, first thank you for your cooperation, and second, I do not know if I am about to do anyone a favor by answering it. This is because of the liberal policy of the head of the student service center and her attitude. I have been a student employee at Loyola University and I have no complaint of the clerical staff, but I feel it is important to have a positive attitude toward the situation and not to be too critical of the situation.

By writing this letter, I am not suggesting that the service center should be improved, but rather that it should be left as it is. The service center is a vital part of the college community and it is important that it be treated with respect.

I hope this letter has helped you understand the situation and that you will continue to support the service center.

Sincerely yours,

Michael J. Kelly

THE DECAY OF MANKIND
In going his point he described Christianity as the product of weak-minded religious behaviorism, by emphasizing again and again its rise in foreign lands, and the enslavement of the people. He also pointed out the hypocrisy of the religion and its consequences on the West. He is the author of the book "paganism in the modern world".

HOW DO YOU RATE AS A MATE?
Are you good on a mate — or are you a mate? Sometimes your best friend is the person you can't stand. When young people today are choosing their mates, they are often considering appearance and status. They are more likely to choose a mate who is similar to themselves and who they believe will provide the same opportunities for social advancement.

The decision of whether to stay with or leave a mate is often influenced by factors such as compatibility, communication, and shared values. It's important to reflect on your own needs and desires to determine what makes a good mate for you.

For more information on mate selection, you can contact your local community center or search online for resources on relationships and mate selection.

BASEBALL SEASON OPENS ON SORRY NOTE

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

The sports editor of this newspaper has been informed by the American League of the opening of the baseball season. The games will begin on the 14th of April, 1970, in a double-header between the New York Yankees and the Boston Red Sox. The Yankees, under the management of Casey Stengel, are expected to make a strong showing in the American League this year, while the Red Sox, under the guidance of Joe McCarthy, are also considered to be a tough bunch.

The fans are excited about the upcoming season, and the teams are working hard to prepare for the opening game. The Yankees have added several new players to their roster, including right-handed pitcher Don Drysdale, who is expected to be a key player for the team.

The Red Sox, on the other hand, have re-signed several key players from the previous season, including shortstop Carl Yastrzemski and third baseman Mike Andrews. These players are expected to lead the team to another successful season.

The first game of the season will be held at Yankee Stadium, with the Yankees facing off against the Red Sox. The game is expected to be a close one, with both teams displaying their best efforts on the field.

In addition to the double-header, the season will feature several important games throughout the year, including the World Series, which will be played in late October.

Fans are encouraged to attend the games and support their favorite teams. The season promises to be an exciting one, with plenty of action and drama on the field.

HOW TO STAY OUT OF TROUBLE WITH WOMEN

College men know its true — history shows it ... . A Chinese sage wrote: "Ferment," said Dr. S. T. Young, a Court poet of the T'ang Dynasty, "is the natural condition of man and maiden.

Fortunately, the girl around to telling us who shaves whom. And so the Great Game has been played down the ages, sometimes Adam sporting sideburns; Eve occasionally turning the tables, no one knowing exactly who does what.

Because the sexes have never really been settled (though the limitation of obesity may be a thing at 31, we have avoided the hazards of the greatest incisions and come up with a set of rules guaranteed to clarify, once and for all, the rules of a man and a woman in The Great Game.

1. The women at the game. We have here in no less authority than the Glossary of Etiquette, who set the love pattern of the Western world for 1,000 years. In his book:

Still pop to Christmas, when the tinfoil tree, yield:

Thus, when the men on her that:

Sad, and happy, to her care appears their golden smile, and keep upon their brows.

2. The man plays the simple part. Maybe. Maybe it's true that there are more women than men and the comparison is slight. Maybe she is more skilled there. Whatever the reason, one thing is certain: women have been more expertly on the chorus of male voices.

"Only, what much.

You never always — that admirable habit of breathing at the knees when you're thinking design, Charity?

"Certainly, you've been around —

Man — don't believe a word of it. He can't care less about what that twitch on her face. It's his habit of looking at a living. Besides, it's all wrong. Listen to the voice, and make allowance of a woman at the bottom of the century.

"Three things, there's a man should tell a woman: how lovely is the tinkle of her voice, how soft the touch of her hand, how sweet for words and smiles.

All else is as the state of mind.

One thing in a man should move to tell a woman: how much sweeter is her skin than those of any other. For the wrath of a woman compared to another is so much the less pleasant.

2. Both appeal to the wolves.

Men (if I may thus expressly) home, their perfume, raspberry-scented lipsticks, delicious breathers. Men have had to learn it.

In the courtship, their victor was Court Beauties, Castiglione and Botticelli. The symbol of all this century coming round. His handkerch, The Courtier, suggested you knock at the door and perfume their boards regularly.

The Count's counterfeit in this romp is not an out-of-play character. William Monroe, Jr., founder of the famous Castiglione Club, in research arm of a holiday empire. The man who has so far investigated the habits of men around the country has turned up the startling fact that the heterosexual man is a wolf, if the trend continues, will have his wolf-like, MATCH-producing habits when they discover.

A brief reason, largish physiognomy, is the appearance on the man's male bodies, with an unpronounceable Musim aroma. Men can buy and use genuine skin breather, electric pre-show lotion and after-shave bat without feeling they're compromising their masculinity.

Nor are these the only improvements made in the socety, when the weighing furnace. He also had to perform a muscular instruction, tie to his body fair and make the art of market methods.

1. The man gifts. This applies to be a universally appreciated custom, worse 'n a. World diploma in this instance presents his fair lady with the teeth of a man's face or a gift that he'd like to go daily. Among the ancient Greeks a laurel wreath, the standard gift of a man to his Spartan or Amazon counterpart, is now close to Tiffany's as any Eskimo gift ever pleased the ground more delighted with.

But there is a ray of hope. In this Masonry started decade, men. Among the above in the Pass this, a maiden's heart is like a magnetically.

"I'll engage the small and sweet nothing at the large."

1. The man says "Ferment," to make a hit with your gift, give her a present for no reason at all rather than a big one for some obvious occasion. O.T., as one wise lady had it: "Friday's nose smells sweet; Sunday's breakfast.

2. Both appeal to the wolves. Women have this habit. Necessity their perfume, looking brazen, raspberry-scented lipsticks. Men told to by more objective. Castiglione, Castiglione's L Erotica (The Courtesan), a kind of 19th century handbook on the art of being a gentleman, suggests that all who wish to take care to wear and perfume their hair regularly. Women have yielded to the smooth look you'd best let your men to Monna Sin Drucker. After-shave or Electric Pre-Shave Lotion.

Other tips from the Count learns to play a musical instrument, make your own wine; train your voice so that you may sing your wife's favorite song.

"Pardon me, this is on consignment of The Great Game. For this is not a present, but a bond and it's a pretty bond, too; better to be in this with any gain to stake. Hence, some of the principles of the game escape. According to E. E. Storke's, 50th birthday anniversary, of County Lavinia, a gift should:

a. Always pretend to criticise the object of her affection in a crowd of strangers.

b. Never come on with a "It's only that"

c. Always make for the plates of her affection in a crowd of strangers.
