Funeral Of Percy C. Judd
Well Attended

Many friends and relatives, fraternal and professional associates were present for the funeral of Percy C. Judd, professor of the Lowell Textile Institute, at the First Congregational Church on Saturday afternoon, March 14th. The Masonic ritual was exemplified.

Dr. James King, pastor of the church, officiated. Appropriate psalms and psalm music was played on the organ by Mrs. Albert Solomonsen, church organist.

Delegations present included the trustees of the church represented by Mr. Arthur Cashin, chairman, Arthur Benedict, Harry F. Betts, Philip H. Rogers, Walker G. Duane, Paul E. Wilmoth. The largest delegation to the church was represented by the trustees, Charles C. Seibert, chairman, Miss Joan C. Stanley, John A. Cahill, John E. Regan, Walter F. Connor and James H. Rice.

The Youth Church of the First Congregational Church was represented by a delegation headed by Mrs. John Chalmers, chairman; the Women's Association was represented by Mrs. William I. Wiggins, president and a delegation; the junior deaconesses were represented by Mrs. Ralph W. Thompson, and a junior deacons delegation was headed by Raymond Tompkins. The last-mentioned delegation was represented by a delegation headed by Paul E. Wilmoth, chairman.

A large delegation from the student body of the Lowell Textile Institute was present. The Rotary Club was represented by a large group, headed by the president, Charles C. Forrest. The Scottish Rite bodies of Lowell were represented by officers of the local lodge and by representatives of Burlington, Vt., bodies.

The honorary bearers and ushers at the church were the deacons, of which Mr. Judd was chairman. They were Edward B. Conley, chairman; E. W. McCullough, Raymond McCoy, George M. Heath and John A. Peacock.

(Continued on page 3)

LOWELL TEXTILE INSTITUTE

Four-Year Degree Courses in CHEMISTRY AND TEXTILE COLORING—TEXTILE ENGINEERING, Textile Technology, and Textile Chemistry and Textile Technology (Bachelor of Science in Textile Engineering) offered for completion of prescribed four-year courses.

Three-Year Diploma Courses in

COTTON MANUFACTURING, WOOL MANUFACTURING, TEXTILE DESIGNING

Scientific and practical training in all processes of textile manufacture including all commercial firms.

Certified graduates of High Schools and Academies admitted without examination.

For catalogue address Charles H. Evans, S. B., President, Lowell, Mass.

“THE HAUNTED HOUSE”

Synopsis of 3-Act Comedy to Be Given by The Textile Players

On Friday, April 28, 1929

A newly married couple arrive to spend their honeymoon in a summer cottage owned by the girl's father, who has begged them not to go there, because he claims the house is haunted. All the family are gone to the sea, and the genius of the cottage, already arriv'd, strange sounds are heard in the room. The bride leaves the Chairman, Dr. Percival Wilmot, addressed the audience.

Professor Percyc C. Judd Passes Away In His 55th Year

Was Instructor of Electricity and Mathematics at Lowell Textile Institute for Sixteen Years. Was a Graduate of the University of Vermont. — Served as Major During World War.

Percy C. Judd, for the past six years an instructor of electric ity and mathematics at Lowvell Textile Institute and former President of the Lowell Rotary

Club, died Wednesday evening, April 11, 1929, at the Delancy

Hospital after an illness of about

O'clock. He was 55 years of age.

Professor Judd graduated from the Committee on

Alumni, Over the years, the LTI has been a place of Second, it was felt that

Fontaine PENS

Pens, Pencils, Notebooks

JEWELLERY

PREMIUMS

DICTIONARIES

PHYSICAL LABS
A Co-Ed Comments on the Smoking Situation

A LETTER TO THE EDITOR

"The removal of the nickelodeon was done for disciplinary purposes. The privilege of having the music was extended; in the first place, under the express conditions, stated by the President, that there be no smoking or eating of lunches in the hall. There was no trouble whatever about the eating, since the smoking was a different story. Most fellows, when noticed smoking, quite amably disposed of their cigarettes or pipe. None, however, disposed of the cigarettes on the floor — a situation which led to trouble and to the removal of the machine.

There was a lot of grumbling from some, especially the upperclassmen, about the no smoking rule. It is too bad to spoil their fun, but it is hoped that they now understand that the rule means just what it says. It won’t hurt anyone to go without a smoke for a short while — at least it hasn’t yet."

LETTERS

In recent issues of the TEXT there have appeared several letters from the students. We are very pleased to see that the TEXT is regarded as the best medium for voicing the opinions of the student body. We believe that the students will continue to submit their "Letters to the Editor" for the TEXT, primarily the voice of Lowell Textile Institute.

LUCIEN R. BRUNELLE
Registered Pharmacist
209 MOODY STREET

RIGGS & LOMBARD
FINISHING MACHINERY
LOWELL

G. C. PRINCE & SON, INC.
BOOKS, FOUNTAIN PENS, GIFT SHOP, TOY SHOP, GAMES, AND PORTABLE TYPEWRITERS
108 Merrimack St.
LOWELL, MASS.

N. V. NELSON & CO.
Domestic COTTON Foreign
93 Federal Street
BOSTON, MASS.

THE TEXT

Vol. XXI No. 21
Published weekly during the fall semester, except during vacations by the Text News Association of the Lowell Textile Institute, Vol. 19, Lowell, Mass., Entered as second-class matter at the Lowell Post Office.

GEO. H. MCFADDEN & BROS.
COTTON MERCHANTS

The Band Wagon

ABE LYMAN

Abe Lyman still knee-deep in the thirties is one of the entertainments' youngest veterans. His musical career was launched many years ago in the armed forces of the World War. His broadcasting career started in the earliest days of the radio. He was born on August 3, 1909. As a boy, they say he played the drums and saxophone. As he usually the case, the results were discordant and deafening. So he was permitted to go on stage and it was the making of a maestro. However, he didn’t become a musicologist right away, as his father was a fruit peddler with seven children. Young Abe was first a newsboy. He cleaned up back yard stands to get free passes to the games. He drove a taxi, was a clerk in a cigar store and a waiter in a restaurant. But, he never wanted to be a drummer. Finally he teamed with another young musician by the name of Gus Arakelian, and they landed a job in a local movie. Even with that, Young Abe was after to be in the movies, so in the twenties, he left for California where his brother ran a restaurant.

Abe Lyman’s career began a series of successes that is yet to be interrupted. Through the years they have been together and together. California has shown their remarkable ability to play the current style of music, with a sparkle. A leader in the popular music field since the baby days of radio, Abe Lyman has pioneered many of radio’s new styles. Notable are the introductions of the records and the electric organs as solo instruments in a dance band. Whenever and wherever the music has changed, Abe Lyman has been there. The Band Wagon

The Band Wagon

ABE LYMAN

Abe Lyman still knee-deep in the thirties is one of the entertainments youngest veteran's. His musical career was launched many years ago in the armed forces of the World War. His broadcasting career started in the earliest days of the radio. He was born on August 3, 1909. As a boy, they say he played the drums and saxophone. As he usually the case, the results were discordant and deafening. So he was permitted to go on stage and it was the making of a maestro. However, he didn’t become a musicologist right away, as his father was a fruit peddler with seven children. Young Abe was first a newsboy. He cleaned up back yard stands to get free passes to the games. He drove a taxi, was a clerk in a cigar store and a waiter in a restaurant. But, he never wanted to be a drummer. Finally he teamed with another young musician by the name of Gus Arakelian, and they landed a job in a local movie. Even with that, Young Abe was after to be in the movies, so in the twenties, he left for California where his brother ran a restaurant.

Abe Lyman’s career began a series of successes that is yet to be interrupted. Through the years they have been together and together. California has shown their remarkable ability to play the current style of music, with a sparkle. A leader in the popular music field since the baby days of radio, Abe Lyman has pioneered many of radio’s new styles. Notable are the introductions of the records and the electric organs as solo instruments in a dance band. Whenever and wherever the music has changed, Abe Lyman has been there.

The Band Wagon

The Band Wagon

ABE LYMAN

Abe Lyman still knee-deep in the thirties is one of the entertainments youngest veteran's. His musical career was launched many years ago in the armed forces of the World War. His broadcasting career started in the earliest days of the radio. He was born on August 3, 1909. As a boy, they say he played the drums and saxophone. As he usually the case, the results were discordant and deafening. So he was permitted to go on stage and it was the making of a maestro. However, he didn’t become a musicologist right away, as his father was a fruit peddler with seven children. Young Abe was first a newsboy. He cleaned up back yard stands to get free passes to the games. He drove a taxi, was a clerk in a cigar store and a waiter in a restaurant. But, he never wanted to be a drummer. Finally he teamed with another young musician by the name of Gus Arakelian, and they landed a job in a local movie. Even with that, Young Abe was after to be in the movies, so in the twenties, he left for California where his brother ran a restaurant.

Abe Lyman’s career began a series of successes that is yet to be interrupted. Through the years they have been together and together. California has shown their remarkable ability to play the current style of music, with a sparkle. A leader in the popular music field since the baby days of radio, Abe Lyman has pioneered many of radio’s new styles. Notable are the introductions of the records and the electric organs as solo instruments in a dance band. Whenever and wherever the music has changed, Abe Lyman has been there.

The Band Wagon

The Band Wagon

ABE LYMAN

Abe Lyman still knee-deep in the thirties is one of the entertainments youngest veteran's. His musical career was launched many years ago in the armed forces of the World War. His broadcasting career started in the earliest days of the radio. He was born on August 3, 1909. As a boy, they say he played the drums and saxophone. As he usually the case, the results were discordant and deafening. So he was permitted to go on stage and it was the making of a maestro. However, he didn’t become a musicologist right away, as his father was a fruit peddler with seven children. Young Abe was first a newsboy. He cleaned up back yard stands to get free passes to the games. He drove a taxi, was a clerk in a cigar store and a waiter in a restaurant. But, he never wanted to be a drummer. Finally he teamed with another young musician by the name of Gus Arakelian, and they landed a job in a local movie. Even with that, Young Abe was after to be in the movies, so in the twenties, he left for California where his brother ran a restaurant.

Abe Lyman’s career began a series of successes that is yet to be interrupted. Through the years they have been together and together. California has shown their remarkable ability to play the current style of music, with a sparkle. A leader in the popular music field since the baby days of radio, Abe Lyman has pioneered many of radio’s new styles. Notable are the introductions of the records and the electric organs as solo instruments in a dance band. Whenever and wherever the music has changed, Abe Lyman has been there.
The Textile Players feel fortunate in having obtained the famous Fenton Brothers' Orchestra to furnish the music for the show and for the Annual Textile Ball. The next issue of the Text will carry full details of the coming Textile Show.

Funeral Of Percy C. Judd Attended by Many

(Continued from page 1) The active bearers were Professor Herbert J. Ball, Professor James Guthrie Doss and Professor Edwin Wells, associates of Mr. Judd at Lowell Textile Institute; Harold F. Howe, Harry Q. Quinn and Charles F. Langley, members of the Rotary club, of which Mr. Judd was a past president.

The entire faculty of the Textile Institute was present.

At the conclusion of Dr. King's funeral service the Masonic ritual was exemplified by officers of William North Lodge, A. F. & A. M. There were many beautiful flowers.

The body was taken to Canaan, Vt., where services were conducted at the Grace M. E. Church. Burial was in the family lot at Alice Hun Cemetery, Canaan.

Charles J. Keyes
Coach Textile Players

The Ever-Present Fair

The separate articles, of almost every conceivable kind and use, carrying the insignia of the New York World's Fair 1933 license for commercial production, now number more than 8,000. They include hats and shoes, dress and evening gowns, flags, food, fun, glass, pottery, lamps, mirrors, nursery equipment, desks, wall paper, rugs and hangings, leather goods, costume jewelry, and dinner favors, luggage, and containers for toilet articles.

E. L'ECUYER'S VARIETY STORE
Where Fraternity Meets Fraternity
238 Pawtucket St.
Lowell, Mass.
Baseball Team Shaping Up For a Busy Season

(Continued from page 2)

better with each season and should have a banner year. Assisting him will be Stan Garnett. First base will be a problem. Vin Mahoney will be lost to the team because of the interference in his studies. Walt Stahlkunski, who will be converted from catcher to an infielder, should fill the order nicely. Playing second base is another veteran of three years—Jack Bratman. "Jack" is not an early season hitter but usually finishes strong. Last year was the first year he fell under the .300 average. If he gets his eye on the ball early this year he should return to the crowded circle. A sinker with lots of class in Bob Turras who, with a little experience, should be a bang-up ball player. Herman Buckley will be moved from shortstop to third base. "Buck" was the leading hitter last year. He should take Baird Richie's place nicely. The shortstop for the season is destined to be that crack basketball player, Walt Litzin. If he lives up to his advanced notices he should be the best short fielder that we have had in a long time.

We have a crop of hard-hitting, sure fielding outfielders. Among them is that man of all positions, Charlie Merritt, the first baseman Frank Siegle, "Sloppy" Soule Campbell who can play a lot of baseball; ChickMartin, a long hitter and sure fielder with lots of speed and bat, but not base, in football captain Tom Reddish, the woe of all opposing pitchers. The A. A. usually credits a half to the expense items when Tom connects.

For a prediction I will go down as saying that we should have a good year—providing we do not lose too many games.

The complete schedule as arranged and revised by the Director of Athletics is as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Date</th>
<th>Opponent</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Apr. 13</td>
<td>Northeastern at Boston</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Apr. 15</td>
<td>Brown at Providence</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Apr. 18</td>
<td>Rhode Island State at Kingston</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Apr. 21</td>
<td>Tafts at Medford</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Apr. 25</td>
<td>American International at Lowell</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Apr. 29</td>
<td>Bates at Lowell</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>May 1</td>
<td>Arnold at Lowell</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>May 4</td>
<td>Middlebury at Middlebury</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>May 9</td>
<td>Providence at Providence</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>May 13</td>
<td>Springfield at Springfiel d</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>May 17</td>
<td>N. H. U. at Lowell</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>May 20</td>
<td>U. S. Coast Guard Academy at New London</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>May 24</td>
<td>Assumption at Lowell</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>May 27</td>
<td>Becker at Lowell</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>May 31</td>
<td>Assumption at Worcester</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>June 3</td>
<td>Alumni at Lowell</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

VELOZ and YOLANDA in their famous "Dance of the Cigarette" with

Chesterfield

THE HAPPY COMBINATION (perfect mix blend) of the world's best cigarette tobaccos

Chesterfield’s can’t-be-copied blend of mild ripe American and aromatic Turkish tobaccos gives you all the qualities you like in a smoke... mildness, better taste, and pleasing aroma.

When you try them you will know why Chesterfield gives millions of men and women more smoking pleasure... why THEY SATISFY