SUSPEND TWO TEACHERS AT LTI IN RED PROBE

Board of Trustees Takes Action Following Receipt of Letter From Atty. Gen. Fingold

By Fred R. Day

LOWELL—Two teachers at Lowell Technological Institute suspended for conduct unbecoming, were among the board of trustees for an indefinite period Friday.

The two teachers are named.

The board also acted on a recommendation of Rep. Thomas P. O'Neill (R-Mass.) that the institute be suspended for a period of time equal to the time the institute would have been in operation for the remaining time during the current academic year.

The board's action was taken following receipt of a letter from Atty. Gen. Fingold.

The two teachers have been charged with misconduct in the discharge of their duties.

The board's action was taken following receipt of a letter from Atty. Gen. Fingold.

The two teachers have been suspended for a period of time equal to the time the institute would have been in operation for the remaining time during the current academic year.

The board's action was taken following receipt of a letter from Atty. Gen. Fingold.

The two teachers have been suspended for a period of time equal to the time the institute would have been in operation for the remaining time during the current academic year.

The board's action was taken following receipt of a letter from Atty. Gen. Fingold.

The two teachers have been suspended for a period of time equal to the time the institute would have been in operation for the remaining time during the current academic year.

The board's action was taken following receipt of a letter from Atty. Gen. Fingold.

The two teachers have been suspended for a period of time equal to the time the institute would have been in operation for the remaining time during the current academic year.

The board's action was taken following receipt of a letter from Atty. Gen. Fingold.

The two teachers have been suspended for a period of time equal to the time the institute would have been in operation for the remaining time during the current academic year.

The board's action was taken following receipt of a letter from Atty. Gen. Fingold.

The two teachers have been suspended for a period of time equal to the time the institute would have been in operation for the remaining time during the current academic year.

The board's action was taken following receipt of a letter from Atty. Gen. Fingold.

The two teachers have been suspended for a period of time equal to the time the institute would have been in operation for the remaining time during the current academic year.

The board's action was taken following receipt of a letter from Atty. Gen. Fingold.

The two teachers have been suspended for a period of time equal to the time the institute would have been in operation for the remaining time during the current academic year.

The board's action was taken following receipt of a letter from Atty. Gen. Fingold.

The two teachers have been suspended for a period of time equal to the time the institute would have been in operation for the remaining time during the current academic year.

The board's action was taken following receipt of a letter from Atty. Gen. Fingold.

The two teachers have been suspended for a period of time equal to the time the institute would have been in operation for the remaining time during the current academic year.

The board's action was taken following receipt of a letter from Atty. Gen. Fingold.

The two teachers have been suspended for a period of time equal to the time the institute would have been in operation for the remaining time during the current academic year.

The board's action was taken following receipt of a letter from Atty. Gen. Fingold.

The two teachers have been suspended for a period of time equal to the time the institute would have been in operation for the remaining time during the current academic year.

The board's action was taken following receipt of a letter from Atty. Gen. Fingold.

The two teachers have been suspended for a period of time equal to the time the institute would have been in operation for the remaining time during the current academic year.

The board's action was taken following receipt of a letter from Atty. Gen. Fingold.

The two teachers have been suspended for a period of time equal to the time the institute would have been in operation for the remaining time during the current academic year.

The board's action was taken following receipt of a letter from Atty. Gen. Fingold.

The two teachers have been suspended for a period of time equal to the time the institute would have been in operation for the remaining time during the current academic year.

The board's action was taken following receipt of a letter from Atty. Gen. Fingold.

The two teachers have been suspended for a period of time equal to the time the institute would have been in operation for the remaining time during the current academic year.

The board's action was taken following receipt of a letter from Atty. Gen. Fingold.

The two teachers have been suspended for a period of time equal to the time the institute would have been in operation for the remaining time during the current academic year.

The board's action was taken following receipt of a letter from Atty. Gen. Fingold.

The two teachers have been suspended for a period of time equal to the time the institute would have been in operation for the remaining time during the current academic year.

The board's action was taken following receipt of a letter from Atty. Gen. Fingold.

The two teachers have been suspended for a period of time equal to the time the institute would have been in operation for the remaining time during the current academic year.

The board's action was taken following receipt of a letter from Atty. Gen. Fingold.

The two teachers have been suspended for a period of time equal to the time the institute would have been in operation for the remaining time during the current academic year.

The board's action was taken following receipt of a letter from Atty. Gen. Fingold.

The two teachers have been suspended for a period of time equal to the time the institute would have been in operation for the remaining time during the current academic year.

The board's action was taken following receipt of a letter from Atty. Gen. Fingold.

The two teachers have been suspended for a period of time equal to the time the institute would have been in operation for the remaining time during the current academic year.

The board's action was taken following receipt of a letter from Atty. Gen. Fingold.

The two teachers have been suspended for a period of time equal to the time the institute would have been in operation for the remaining time during the current academic year.

The board's action was taken following receipt of a letter from Atty. Gen. Fingold.

The two teachers have been suspended for a period of time equal to the time the institute would have been in operation for the remaining time during the current academic year.

The board's action was taken following receipt of a letter from Atty. Gen. Fingold.

The two teachers have been suspended for a period of time equal to the time the institute would have been in operation for the remaining time during the current academic year.

The board's action was taken following receipt of a letter from Atty. Gen. Fingold.

The two teachers have been suspended for a period of time equal to the time the institute would have been in operation for the remaining time during the current academic year.

The board's action was taken following receipt of a letter from Atty. Gen. Fingold.

The two teachers have been suspended for a period of time equal to the time the institute would have been in operation for the remaining time during the current academic year.

The board's action was taken following receipt of a letter from Atty. Gen. Fingold.

The two teachers have been suspended for a period of time equal to the time the institute would have been in operation for the remaining time during the current academic year.

The board's action was taken following receipt of a letter from Atty. Gen. Fingold.

The two teachers have been suspended for a period of time equal to the time the institute would have been in operation for the remaining time during the current academic year.

The board's action was taken following receipt of a letter from Atty. Gen. Fingold.

The two teachers have been suspended for a period of time equal to the time the institute would have been in operation for the remaining time during the current academic year.

The board's action was taken following receipt of a letter from Atty. Gen. Fingold.

The two teachers have been suspended for a period of time equal to the time the institute would have been in operation for the remaining time during the current academic year.

The board's action was taken following receipt of a letter from Atty. Gen. Fingold.

The two teachers have been suspended for a period of time equal to the time the institute would have been in operation for the remaining time during the current academic year.

The board's action was taken following receipt of a letter from Atty. Gen. Fingold.

The two teachers have been suspended for a period of time equal to the time the institute would have been in operation for the remaining time during the current academic year.

The board's action was taken following receipt of a letter from Atty. Gen. Fingold.

The two teachers have been suspended for a period of time equal to the time the institute would have been in operation for the remaining time during the current academic year.

The board's action was taken following receipt of a letter from Atty. Gen. Fingold.

The two teachers have been suspended for a period of time equal to the time the institute would have been in operation for the remaining time during the current academic year.

The board's action was taken following receipt of a letter from Atty. Gen. Fingold.

The two teachers have been suspen...