 Sect. 9. If any of the substances mentioned in the preceding section, shall be thrown or carried from any house, warehouse, shop, cellar, yard, or other place, into any street, court, alley, lane, or public square, or vacant lot, as well the owner of such house or other place whence the same shall have been thrown or carried, as the occupant thereof, and the person who actually threw or carried the same, shall be severally held liable for the violation of this ordinance; and such substances shall be removed from the street, lane, alley, court, square, public place or vacant lot, by and at the expense of the owner, or occupant of the house, or other place whence the same were thrown or carried, within twenty-four hours after personal notice in writing to that effect, given by one of the Health Commissioners.

 Sect. 10. All dirt, saw dust, scot, ashes, cinders, shavings, shreds, manure, oyster shells and lobster shells, wastewaters, or any animal or vegetable substance, rubbish or filth of any kind, in any house, warehouse, cellar, yard or other place, shall, if the Board of Health Commissioners, or any one of them so order, be carried away therefrom by and at the expense of the owner or occupant of such house or other place, and be removed to such place as shall be directed within twenty-four hours after notice in writing to that effect, given by one of the Health Commissioners.

 Sect. 11. No person shall offer for sale, or have in his possession in any market or place whatever, any unwholesome, stale or putrid meat, fish or fruit, or other articles of provisions, or any meat which has been blown, raised or stuffed, or any diseased or meanly pork.

 Sect. 12. No person shall bring into the city for sale, nor shall...
