ATLANTAS OF SURVEYS.

CITY OF LOWELL, MASS.

1896.

Published to the Order of Well-Known Citizens, Representing the Business, Professional and Educational Interests of the City,

AND THROUGH WHOSE HEARTY SUPPORT ALONE THE COMPLETION OF THIS VOLUME HAS BEEN MADE POSSIBLE.

ALLEN, OTIS & SON.
There are others. But—XXX. Mill Buses. The best is the cheapest. We intend to make the very best Wooden Box possible. About which there shall be no complaint. Unless it is the price.

This Filling Box has been in constant service in one of the largest Mills in Lowell, Mass., since 1882. And is still in use in 1895.
This is our Standard Filling Box for 1895. Very much as the Box we have been making since 1872. Though somewhat improved.

HAYES, WILLIAM H. L.
Was born in Boston, June 21st, 1854. His mother removed to Lowell in 1854, his father going to California, where he died. When eight years old removed to Groton, going on a farm at eleven, and to school only in the winter. When only thirteen enlisted in Company B, Sixth Regiment, undercall one hundred men, but returned, as call was changed. In August, 1862, enlisted in Company B, Sixth Regiment, and served in the 4th Division, 7th Army Corps, in Suffolk and Norfolk, Va. Here gained the nickname of "Old Hundred," he was so young and small, being one of the very youngest soldiers who carried a gun.

Mr. Hayes comes of fighting stock. His grandfather was in Mexican War, his great-grandfather's mother was on side at battle of Bunker Hill, while his great-great-grandfather was Captain Oliver Parker, in same fight. The mother of Captain Oliver Parker had her part also in the struggle against the Indians of those days, when she is said to have killed three who attacked her house in the absence of its male defenders.

Re-enlisted in November, 1863, in Company B of the Fifty-sixth Regiment, and served all through Grant's campaigns; mustered out July, 1865. President of Association of Survivors of Company B, Sixth Regiment; also of Association of Survivors of Fifty-sixth Regiment.

After war made his and traveled as salesman until going into business for himself in 1877, now being manufacturer of cigars and wholesale dealer in the same, making a specialty of the "Old Hundred" brand, named after the nickname given him while in the army. Overseer of the Poor. Is member and commander of B. F. Butler Post, G. A. R., also of the Red Men, Old Fellows, Knights of Pythias, and Masons. Director of the Middlesex Trust Company, of Lawrence. On committees on Elections and Liquor Law, in House of 1893; on committees on Insurance and Water Supply, in House of 1894; committees on Street Railways and Water Supply, 1893, also 1894.
