Lafayette Day is to be officially observed on May 20, 1977, throughout the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. The Order of Lafayette invites you to meet with it in order to honor the Marquis de Lafayette, whose great contributions to the establishment of our country, will remain forever in the minds of all good Americans.

We are much honored that the French Embassy in Washington, D. C., will send its special representative, Monsieur Dominique Souchet, Bicentennial Officer and First Secretary to the Embassy of France to the United States, to be with us.

Our meeting will be as follows:

Date: Friday, May 20, 1977
Time: 12:15 p.m.
Place: At the Lafayette plaque on Lafayette Mall, Boston Common. (This is located on the west side of Tremont Street, about one hundred yards south of Park Street in Boston.)

We shall then adjourn for a collation (cocktails and refreshments Dutch treat) at the Parker House, 12:45 p.m.

No tickets will be sent, but your name will be at the door.

For those who wish to stay to a Dutch treat luncheon to honor our distinguished visitor, arrangements can be made to follow the collation, and please telephone 742-2590.

This invitation is extended in collaboration with the French Library in Boston and the Club Lafayette of Lowell.

Sincerely yours,

Asa E. Phillips, Jr.  Mylo Housen  Rudolphe W. Ouellette
President General  Executive Director  Chevalier de Lafayette
The Order of Lafayette  French Library in Boston  of Lowell
Club Lafayette of Lowell