FY19

$1,000 Honors College Student Fellowship Application

An Honors College Student Fellowship is a $1,000 award given to an Honors College Student who focuses on a scholarly project for 100 hours. The student does not work in isolation, but is voluntarily supported by a mentor. Projects vary and may be one of these seven TYPES: research, creativity, theme-based reading, author-based reading, service-learning, curating, or entrepreneurial activity. At the end of the fellowship the student must give a public presentation. Awards are credited to the student's tuition and fee bill as we seek to reduce student debt.

The UMass Lowell Honors College is accepting applications for scholarly activity performed any time between July 1, 2018 through June 30, 2019 (FY19). We recommend that students submit their application as soon as possible as awards are given out on a rolling basis until funding runs out.

To apply, for FY19 Honors College Fellowships on or before October 31st, the applicant must complete these two separate steps:

Step 1: Apply online through Academic Works at uml.academicworks.com between February 1, 2018 and October 31, 2018. To complete this step you must accomplish two sub-steps. They are:

(a) complete the General Application within Academic Works and

(b) click on "apply" when the Honors Scholarship Endowment opportunity is recommended and follow the instructions.

Step 2: Fill out this paper application and slide it beneath Jim Canning's office door (O'Leary 302).

To apply for FY19 Honors College Fellowships after October 31st, follow Step 2 only.

If the fellowship you are applying for requires a project description, make sure to staple your attached project description to this piece of paper. All project descriptions must include a title.
