E IS FOR EDUCATION
Marty Meehan knows that a good education is the key to a brighter future.
For our children and for Massachusetts.

A is for ACCOUNTABILITY.
Congressman Marty Meehan has fought to increase school accountability and toughen standards to ensure that tax dollars are spent on giving students the best possible education. He has fought to hold educators and students responsible by regularly testing students. Congressman Meehan supported and now is fighting to fully fund President Bush's No Child Left Behind Act to provide students with the support they need to improve reading, mathematics and science skills.

B is for BETTER TEACHERS and BETTER SCHOOLS.
Better teachers mean better schools, and improved schools mean our children get the education they deserve. Congressman Meehan has worked to provide better training for teachers and more resources for the classroom. He has also fought to secure funding to build new schools and renovate old buildings. Congressman Meehan is working to modernize schools to make the buildings safer, and make the classroom more accessible to the newest technologies.

C is for CLASS SIZES that need to be smaller.
Smaller classes give students more one-on-one attention from their teachers, resulting in better test scores for Massachusetts students. Congressman Meehan has fought to reduce class sizes in Massachusetts public schools. He has also worked to hire 100,000 new teachers across the nation so classrooms aren't overcrowded.

D is for DOLLARS that improve our school programs.
When it comes to improving schools in his District, Congressman Marty Meehan is working to give our children a better education. Congressman Meehan worked to bring almost a billion dollars in education funding to Massachusetts this year, helping with efforts to reduce class size, expand after school programs, restore old school buildings, and give our local school districts the money they need. Congressman Meehan puts Massachusetts families first.

E is for EDUCATION, the key to success.
Congressman Marty Meehan recognizes that education is the crucial component to getting ahead. He is working hard to fully fund special needs funding for all of our communities. Congressman Meehan has also worked to give all students the opportunity to go to college — through establishing the Hope Scholarship, increasing the Pell Grant, and making student loans more affordable. Now he wants to make the first $10,000 of college tuition tax deductible for middle class families. Marty Meehan is helping more Massachusetts students to realize their goal of higher education.
